DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

DETAILED ACTION

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-36 and 38-72, drawn to a casing and method of forming a casing using a multilayer insert, classified in class 166, subclass 380.
- II. Claim 37, drawn to a method of forming a casing using a sleeve and a magnetic energy device, classified in class 166, subclass 380.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions of Group I and Group II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions are two different manners of forming an expandable casing.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

During a telephone conversation with Mr. Mattingly on 7/18/07 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-36 and 38-72. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claim 37 is withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 20-22,24,25,28-30,56-58,60 and 64-66 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Metcalfe 2005/0199385.

Metcalfe discloses an apparatus and method for forming a casing. A multilayer tubular insert 18 is coupled to a threaded portion of tubular 28. A threaded portion of tubing 28 is coupled to the threaded portion of tubular layer 30 and the multilayer insert. Insert 18 is considered multilayered as seen within the circle the inserts overlap forming a multilayer. The tubing is positioned within the borehole and is then radially expanded and plastically deformed. As to claims 21,57 and 65, a tubular sleeve 24,26 is coupled to the tubings 28,30. As to claims 22 and 58, the sleeve receives the tubular members. As to claims 24,30,60 and 66, contact stresses are concentrated between the tubular members. As to claim 25, since the material used to form the layer 18 is different than the material used to form the tubulars, the layer 18 will have a modulus of elasticity different than the tubulars. As to claim 28, the layer 18 is located on the ends of the tubulars. As to claim 56, threaded tubulars 28 and 30 carry the multilayer 18.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 23,26,27,31-36,59,61-63 and 67-72 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 1-19 and 38-55 are allowed.
